

THE CITRUS BOBCHAT

Citrus Elementary School

October 5, 2015

Rachel A. Tadeo, Principal

(530) 891-3107

Volume 79 Issue 6

Tesi T. Keen, Editor

IMPORTANT DATES

Oct 17.....Parade of Lights
 Oct 29....Spooky Science Night
 Oct 30....Awards Assembly

6th GRADE MOVE UPDATE

The CUSD 6th grade program is moving to the junior high schools beginning in the 2016-2017 school year, and we are committed to providing information and receiving input throughout this planning year.

The junior high schools will hold an information night for 5th grade parents on Thursday, October 15th at 6:30PM. Each junior high will host the parents from its feeder schools.

- Bidwell Junior – McManus, Marigold, Neal Dow, Shasta
- Chico Junior – Citrus, Emma Wilson, Hooker Oak, Rosedale
- Marsh Junior – Chapman, Little Chico Creek, Parkview, Sierra View.

The junior highs are all undergoing facilities improvements in preparation for the 6th grade arrival. Stay tuned for more information. If you have questions, please contact John Bohannon at jbohannon@chicousd.org.

PATRICK RANCH & MUSEUM

This is an event to celebrate natural fiber and color. Watch spinners and weavers turn loose fibers into yarn and fabric, and you can try it yourself. Fiber Animals including: rabbits, goats, alpaca, sheep, and even ELVIS THE YAK! Enjoy the Sheep Dog Trials which will move sheep through an obstacle course. Also, children's activities area which include learning Kumihimo (Japanese braid), weave on table looms, knit without needles, and more.

Place: Patrick Ranch at 10381, Midway, Durham, CA

Date: October 10th & 11th

Time: Saturday – 10AM-5PM, Sunday – 10AM-4PM

Cost: $5-adults, $2-children 12 & under.

DONATIONS FOR PARADE OF LIGHTS

Citrus PTA is looking for donations for this year's Parade of Lights on October 17th. This year's theme is Charlotte's Web. We could especially use lights and anything related to a farm theme. Thank you!

SALVATION ARMY ANGEL TREE PROGRAM

The Angel Tree is a type of program that allows needy families to request gifts for children and other family members from those who have the ability and willingness to give. The ultimate goal of the Angel Tree program is to get new toys and clothing into the hands of needy Children during the holiday season. Families who are eligible to participate in the program submit requests for items that each child in the household needs to the Salvation Army in advance of the holiday season.

Location: 5 67 E. 16th Street, Chico

Date: October 19th (until filled)

Time: 9am-2pm

Please Bring:

- Proof of income for past 30 days.
- I.D. for each household member. For children 12 and under, it needs to have their birthdate.
- Proof of address (no junk mail).

HARVEST FEST

Saturday, October 31st is the Harvest Fest. This is a free afternoon of games, candy and laughter. Costume make-up will be offered by Chico's own Marinello Beauty School. Food will include Chili and Corn Bread. This event is located at The Salvation Army – Chico Corps at 567 East 16th street. Any questions, please call Leslie Aranca @ 530-342-1871 or e-mail @ leslie.aranca@usw.salvationarmy.org

REMEMBER....KEEP OUR SCHOOL SAFE, DON'T BRING LATEX ITEMS TO SCHOOL!